A Memorial Service is your opportunity to honor and celebrate the life of your loved one, to acknowledge the loss, and to share the process of saying goodbye.

My intention in leading memorial services is to create an environment that allows you to be as relaxed and present as possible for this important event, leaving the logistics and details to me.

I offer two levels of service:

Level One

- ✧ I will lead a memorial service that fits the spiritual beliefs of you and your loved one. The ceremony can be spiritual, secular, or religious.
- ✧ You provide me with a short history that I will read.
- ✧ I will send you the outline ahead of the service, and you can include music, readings, and people to speak, and I will integrate these into the ceremony.
- ✧ We meet for an hour before the service to talk and go over the details.

A different option is that I can craft a memorial service that you can lead.

Level Two

- ✧ We meet in person or on Zoom so we can get acquainted and I can learn about the life of your beloved.
- ✧ I create a personalized memorial ceremony that is aligned with the nature and spiritual direction of your loved one as well as what is comfortable for you. The ceremony can be spiritual, secular, or religious.
- ✧ You write a short history of their life that includes significant events.

- ✧ I act as the "planner" for your ceremony, so you and your family can relax and be with the guests.
- ✧ I coordinate the sharing of memories by family and friends.
- ✧ I offer resources, and together we can plan appropriate readings or prayers, personalized rituals, and music, if desired.
- ✧ I offer suggestions for you to create a memorial program to hand out, if desired.

Who is Rev. Katherine?

As an ordained minister through Centers for Spiritual Living, I am the community spiritual leader of the Center for Richer Living in Mill Valley, California, where we study the principles that are common among the major wisdom traditions.

My memorial services are mostly non-denominational. I treasure this work and find great satisfaction in being a source of comfort and support for families during this tender time of transition.

What People Say

Dear Katherine,

When I contacted you about needing a service for my daughter, Jennifer, who died in a car accident on Christmas Day, I told you that she was somewhere between a Catholic and a Buddhist. You said, "Okay, I can work with that," and then you spent time on the phone with me, and I was able to feel some inner peace. I brought my family to our meeting so that we all could feel peace and healing.

We told you about Jenny's life and who she was. The service you created was very special to our hearts, and we felt so connected to you, as though you had also known Jenny. You were genuine in your words and emotions, and I was very moved when you led us through the visualization of saying goodbye to Jenny. I could feel and see my daughter in my mind.

I would highly recommend you to anyone who is going through a loss or a tragedy, and I wish I had met you sooner. You helped all of us tremendously. We had many family and friends say that the service was the most beautiful memorial they had ever attended.

Thank you sincerely,
Joan Franet

What People Say

Dear Katherine,

Just wanted you to know how much my sister and I and the rest of our family, as well as friends of my mother, were moved by your memorial service. I was especially impressed with how personal a touch you gave it, having never met my mother. You really took the time to know about mom's life, and all on such short notice. Your kindness and direction came at a time when our family needed it most.

We will always look back in comfort, remembering how your wonderful service was so fitting to who mom was. I know everyone that attended feels the same, because they told us. Again, thank you for making a hard time easier.

Sincerely,
Jeannine Combs

"As a violinist, I have performed music for memorials that Rev. Katherine has officiated. I have great respect for her depth of wisdom and understanding, and her services are deeply spiritual without being religious. With poise and compassion she communicates tenderly to the delicate hearts of the friends and family."
